SHOOTING AFFRAY .- A rough and tumble fight occurred a few days ago, between a couple of negro bruisers, named Sam, Gibbs and Wm Wasiey, in which the latter got considerably the worst of the fight. Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock they met again on Causey street, near the corner of Ponto-toc, and after a word or two had passed, Wesley drew a pistol and fired at Gibbs, the bail taking effect on him just below the collar bone, on the right side, making a painful, but not a dangerous wound. Capture of Another of the Gang Which Committed the Outriges upon Mr. Alexander-He Makes a Clean Breast of the Affair-The Negroes Organized and Armed to Rob and Murder All Conservatives-Terrible and Shocking Developments

Yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, dr-tectives McCune and Hastings, with officars Welch, Holland, Smith and Galia-gher, surrounded a house on Court street warmer, and the skies were overcast, as extended, in the rear of the Charleston Depot, and arrested a negro named Steven Torrence, alias "Twine," who was one of the gang who, some weeks ago, shot a Mr. Alexander, on the Pigeon Roost road, near Cane creek bridge, and set fire to his house. When the officers first obtained entrance to the house, the inmales (some fifteen or twenty negroes)

Almost a Riot-Thirty shots Fired and Nobody Hurt.

The following, although the results ere bloodless, serves to show the volcais condition of society in our city, and ow little it will take at some mo pluoge us into a bloody and frightful ot. The affair that we speak of was a riotous demonstration by negroes yester-day evening about four o'clock at the negro Methodist church on Gayoso street, near the bridge. The accounts of it, as detailed to us, are somewhat mixed, but are about as follows: A crowd of negro men were standing outside, waiting for church to turn out, when a dog came out and seated himself on the step. A negro remarked that the dog looked tike a Democratic dog, and he intended a shoot him. Buffing the action to the word he drew a pistol and fired at the brute, missing him. The shot attracted several policemen to the spot, who found themselves vastly in the minority, all the negroes being armed, and retreated rapidly up the street, the negroes firing their pistols, and yelling like demons. One or two of the police in retiring, sang out "riot!" and, as our informant tells us, in a very few moments the streets were full of white men armed. The negroes, meanwhile, flinking there was likely to be warm work, in turn took 25 years, female white; negro, 49 years, affair. One thing was demonstrated male black.
